UPCOMING EVENTS / ACTIVITIES

April Meeting Apr. 1 Station #2 7:00

The March meeting was held at Station 1 on March 4th. In attendance were Betty, Missy, Barbara B., Barbara H., Sheri, Tabitha, Jodi, and Linda. Account balance as of this date is $2,545.32.

Chili Cook-off - The cook-off was held February 27th at Station #1. Thanks to everyone that participated and to those who came and enjoyed the food & fun! We had a total of 13 pots of chili and thanks to Tram Roger's dad, an extra pot of chili. As always, thanks to Donald Cox for his pot of homemade chicken soup! This year's winners are as follows:

- ◆ Ladle Award - Dan Harrod (Station 1)
- ◆ Most Like Mom's - Tram Rogers (Station 4)
- ◆ Firehouse Favorite - Mark Hilbert (Station 4)
- ◆ 3rd Alarm - TJ Cline (Station 5)

Special thanks to our judges Kip Halverson, Paul Gill and Freddie Maggard. We know they started with the hottest pot and hope their mouths have made a full recovery!

Cookbooks - There is still room for more recipes, so if you have one you would like to add, please email it to Sheri Foster at sherbear9271@aol.com by April 1st. Remember, we will be selling these books at this year's Burgoo Festival.

Golf Scramble - Mark your calendars! The first annual Crusade Golf Scramble will be held May 15th at 1:00 at Wild Turkey Trace. Anyone wishing to participate should contact FF Steve Foster. Proceeds will be donated to Crusade for Children.

By-laws - Changes were discussed at the March meeting and will be voted on at the April meeting.

Calling all UK Fans - Jason Dudley is selling raffle tickets for an autographed UK basketball signed by Coach Cal!!! Tickets are $5 each. All proceeds will benefit the American Red Cross. If you would like to purchase tickets, contact Jason at jdudley@mtwashingtonfire.com or Jodi at jedudley@windstream.net.

Activations - Cheeselick/Alford Road on the Mercer County line.

~ACFD FAMILY NEWS~
